KOLKATA(City_of_Joy)

Kolkata formerly called as Calcutta. It is a heritage city. Before independence, British ruled so the city has a lot of British victorian architecture around... Kolkata has rightly been called the 'City of Joy' by French author Dominique Lapierre. Kolkatans know how to enjoy - fun food and festivity, be it Durga Puja, Christmas or New Year celebrations. ... Christmas holds a special place in the festival calendar of Kolkata

. After all, it was the first British India capital. Kolkata is the capital city and the main hub center where the action takes place. It is a Metropolitan city and is quite populated. The Victoria Memorial, Howrah Bridge (Rabindra Setu) and the Second Hooghly Bridge (Vidyasagar Setu) are iconic of Kolkata. Aside from colonial and heritage buildings, there are also high rising monuments and skyscrapers in the city. There are also a couple of cemeteries established by the British when Kolkata was the capital of British India. These include the South Park Street Cemetery and Scottish Cemetery. The Indian Botanic Garden or Calcutta Botanical Garden (previously known as Indian Botanic Garden) the largest and oldest reserve of greeneries of its kind in South East Asia.
